

I fell the FCC has no business preempting the states descisions on this topic. the law as it is in Indiana has gone a long way toward protecting our elderly population from scam artist and unsolicited telemarketers. leave control of the states affairs to the States

thank you

steve caldwell